Hello!

I'm pleased to announce that my new book, The Backpacker's Guide to Business Success: Thriving in the Wilderness of Business, has been published!

This book is geared toward individuals who work, face challenges, or wonder what is up next ahead of them and how they will conquer those challenges. If you are at the peak of your career - congratulations. Take a moment to read and enjoy as none of us stay at the top forever.

It is geared toward the employee, executive, or business owner. On the mountain and in our every-day lives we are all the same. We each have a journey; the question is how we tackle the challenges and scale the mountain.

I challenge you to read the book; perhaps give it as a gift to a friend, a co-worker, or a boss.

Have fun! I do, and life is too short to not enjoy both the ups and downs of the journey.

As the year comes to a close, many thanks to you for walking this road with me. May you have a very Merry Christmas, Happy Hanukkah, Happy Holidays and much success on your journey in 2016!

Success in the business world is a lot like climbing a mountain--plan, prepare, and persevere until you reach your goal. On a mountain, skipping a crucial step can literally cause death; at work, skipping a crucial step can cause the death of a business or career.

Janna's new book offers clear, on-target business advice that everyone can understand and utilize, even if they're not a climber or hiker.

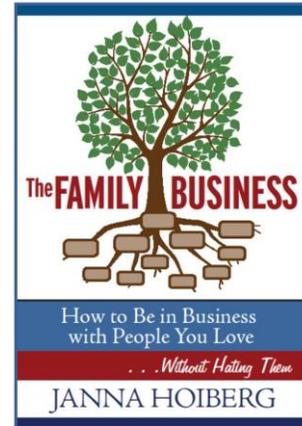

"Janna has creatively combined business and a love for hiking into a practical, entertaining, and compelling book that is relatable to each of our business journeys." --- Monte Wyatt, Executive Leadership Coach
